Dear Bill

Thank you so much for coming up last week. I do hope your journey home was swift with no hold-ups.

Moving Pictures is coming to London next week and so I have arranged with Angus Wolfe-Murray to uplift two of the paintings on Tuesday evening.

David Martin came over yesterday morning from Glasgow and after examining the painting has taken it back with him so that he can study the problem in greater detail. I will let you know the result when I hear from him.

Just to confirm the two paintings coming next week will be:-

'Moorland Landscape' Oil on Canvas £700
by John Busby RSW

'East Coast Rocks' £330
by Donald Morison Buyers RSW

I will invoice you after you have received them.

Did you manage to get to the RSW or did you find that the time just slipped away too quickly. Perhaps the next time you come up you will have a little more.

Yours

PS Shall I keep the little sculpture a little longer?
