Dear Mr. Donald.

Many thanks for the cheque received today I am so glad H.W. was pleased with your choice.

What you need the life story for I don't know. When we meet you must tell me.
I feel I must elaborate
some of the odd things that have happened.

Our greetings to you both &
again many thanks.

Yours V. Sincerely

Phyll & Tweedie B.

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Donald.

I have sent the drawings
by post today. They are at my responsibility. They are on back but change them if you wish.

Please do not have a dark band on frames like those in O Head bar. it will kill any picture. as for, no doubts noticed. Many I suggest a pale 2 or 3" sunk moulding.

We did enjoy your company & are very grateful to you both
for your appreciation.

Phyll. my wife, drove home fairly well after the birthday lunch.
for which many thanks.

I Hate this part.
So will you.

Started drawing about six yrs old.
Selling small drawings " "
Apprenticed after 9 school to Block engraving (wood) and for eight + tadling out of use.

1907. War. Flanders. Camouflage.
1918. Worked for Imperial War M^u
War Theatre - Colony & self.

Exhibited. Paris Salon.

Worked all over Europe. +
For Ex King + Queen of Siam Tutored Prince Caraville of S. They highly cultured people in art.
enjoyed them much they did not enjoy Yorkshire pudding.

I owe nothing to any school.
or cult or painter. always sawed my own saws.

One mm. shows many.

Exhibited under compulsion.

R.A. R.B.A. R.I. R.C.A. R.B.S.A. The Cat.

Had places of honour in all. when

They had them - gone by the board now, even the Gem room at the R.A. - now a Junk room.

I am pleased to say that my work is scattered all over the world & still loved.

Arrested 17 times for working.

Arrested once - For murder.

Arrested once. For drawing a plum tree. (last war) Churchill got me out.

ETC ETC.

It's been fun & games.

Don't you publish this nonsense Voye Lovee for dory. I think you ought to buy my fine picture. "Crabbers corner" - an old head - a mans picture & unizer. Love to you both

Yours Tweedy Bolin &
Phyll.
